NEWS MEDIA ADVISORY:

"Marine Corps reservists to break ground on Brookfield Township community outreach project"

DATE: April 2, 2003

NUMBER: 03-04-13

YOUNGSTOWN AIR RESERVE STATION, OHIO – Vienna's Marine Corps reservists, assigned to Landing Support Equipment Company (-), 4th Landing Support Battalion, 4th Force Service Support Group, Naval and Marine Corps Center (aboard the Youngstown Air Reserve Station), Vienna, Ohio, will be starting work on a community outreach project this weekend.

The project consists of expanding an existing little league park by adding two baseball fields. Work consisting of clearing a wooded area is scheduled to start at approximately 10 a.m. on April 5, 2003, and will continue during Sunday, April 6. Beyond this weekend, work by the Marines is scheduled to continue on their drill weekends throughout the remainder of this season.

The location of this project is within Brookfield Township at the Little League Park, on the North side of Stewart-Sharon Road, midway between State Route 7 and Bedford Road.
